

SOFTWARE EVALUATION

Evaluator's Name: Sharon Eilts

Date of Evaluation: April 23, 2005

Product Title: Word Wise

Publisher: Attainment Company

Content/Subject: Oral language/Reading

Instructional Design for Learners: This software addresses what type of learner needs?

MR, LD

Program Design

- Describe the learning objectives of this program.
  - Pronunciation (speech and language issues)
  - Functional life skills
  - Communication
  - Functional Reading- matching word with picture or word presented without picture
- Describe whether or not the program is age-appropriate.
  - Multi-age focus
  - Customizable for individual student
- What type of motivational techniques does the program employ?
  - Pictures
  - Words
  - Speech (hooting owl at start up is annoying)
  - Print
- Describe the types of skills this program helps develop.
  - Functional reading
  - Oral language – accurate pronunciation
- Special Features:
  - Touch screen compatible
  - IntelliKeys compatible
  - Word presented with or without picture

Measurable Goal

Write a measurable goal related to introducing this software title to a student/client for whom you think this might be appropriate.

By (date), (student) will be able to correctly pronounce 8 functional words presented out of 10 as recorded into software 4 out of 5 times in 4 out of 5 trials.