SOFTWARE EVALUATION

Evaluator's Name: Sharon Eilts

Date of Evaluation: April 23, 2005

Product Title: Destination Reading 2-3, Building Fluency and Comprehension

Publisher: Riverdeep Interactive Learning

Content/Subject:
Reading – comprehension, literay elements, grammar, research skills, reading for purpose, advanced phonics

Instructional Design for Learners: This software addresses what type of learner needs?
Regular education, Learning Disabilities (reading, reading comprehension, decoding, phonics),

Program Design
- Describe the learning objectives of this program.
- Second Grade
    - Comprehension
    - Advanced phonics
    - Word study
    - Elements of fiction
    - Elements of nonfiction
    - Writing
    - Early grammar
- Third Grade
    - Advanced continuation of second-grade topics
    - Research skills
    - Reading for task-oriented purposes
    - Reading graphics-based texts
- Describe whether or not the program is age-appropriate.
    - Graphics and animation designed for the young learner
- What type of motivational techniques does the program employ?
    - Animation
    - Sound
    - Graphics
    - Some user control of activities
    - Data for AYP included

Describe the types of skills this program helps develop.
- See Objectives

Special Features:
- TouchWindow compatibility for Universal Access

Seilts

Measurable Goal

Write a measurable goal related to introducing this software title to a student/client for whom you think this might be appropriate.

By (date), (student) will be able to correctly answer 4 literature questions out of 5 from Grade 3 comprehension activities in 4 trials out of 5 as demonstrated by growth shown in the Learning Management System.

Graphics provided courtesy of Riverdeep website