

SOFTWARE EVALUATION

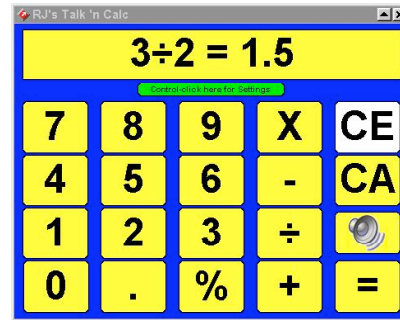

Evaluator's Name: Sharon Eilts

Date of Evaluation: April 23, 2005

Product Title: Talk and Scan Calculator

Publisher: R.J. Cooper & Associates

Content/Subject: Basic skills, Math

Instructional Design for Learners: This software addresses what type of learner needs?

Learning disabilities (math), VI, MR

Program Design

- Describe the learning objectives of this program.
 - Support as accommodation for IEP math issues
 - Mastery of basic skills
- Describe whether or not the program is age-appropriate.
 - Multi-age appropriate
- What type of motivational techniques does the program employ?
 - Reads numbers (mouse over for speech, but if mouse is moved, speech is stopped)
 - Demonstrates process
 - Reads answers if “Check It” is selected
- Describe the types of skills this program helps develop.
 - Basic math skills
 - Math comprehension
- Special Features:
 - Resizable
 - Auditory scanning

Measurable Goal

Write a measurable goal related to introducing this software title to a student/client for whom you think this might be appropriate.

By (date), when presented with 10 two-digit addition problems, (student) will be able to correctly compute 8 out of 10 problems in 4 out of 5.